NOTICE TO STUDENTS AND PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS

At its April 2019 meeting, the ACICS Council reviewed the response from Camelot College to the show-cause directive issued at its December, 2018, meeting. The information provided by Camelot College was reviewed and of the 10 findings, 5 have been resolved and 2 findings were added during the review. As a result, the Council has acted to continue the show-cause directive for subsequent review at its August, 2019, meeting. Our Institution has until August 31, 2019, to bring itself into compliance with the concerns noted by the Council.

INSTITUTIONAL RESPONSE

Camelot College is grateful for the opportunity afforded by the ACICS Council to remedy the areas of concern. It is important to note that most of the concerns noted by the Council are being or have already been corrected. We are especially excited by numerous areas of improvement notated by the Council and are eager to resolve all remaining areas of concern.

FUTURE OUTLOOK

As anticipated, our new responsive and corrective policies have made a positive impact on our administrative effectiveness and capability. We are fully committed to resolving all remaining areas of concern by the ACICS Council as we continue to fulfill our mission of training and placing our deserving students into career jobs. Many major hospitals and other medical institutions are hiring our graduates and we are proud of the many testimonials we are receiving from our graduates reflecting how their lives have been changed because they decided to receive their career education here at Camelot College. Thousands of our graduates are now productive, successful tax paying Americans and to God be the Glory!
